TENSES: present, past, present perfect simple, past perfect, future, conditional

| A barber(=frisōr) was in his shop. He (come) in. He had a snall boy with him. The (=fesch) young strenger (come) in. He had a snall boy with him. The (sit) down together and (wait) till the barber (finish). Hhen the young man told the barber to shave him and to come shall boy's hair. "Shave me first," he said, "and then I (go) down road and have a glass of wine while you (cut) the boy's hair." "All right, but I (go) out and the barber werned him.  3 The young man (go) out and the barber (begin) to cut the boy's hair. As(=wie) he (say), he soon (sail) wait).  4 The young man (not come) back and the boy (finish) and then the boy (still wait).  5 The barber said to the boy, "I wonder why your daddy such a long time. Where can he be?" "I cen't guess," answered the small boy. "And the (not be) my daddy. I (never see) him befor my life. I (not be) my daddy. I (never see) him befor my life. I (not be) my daddy. I (never see) him befor my life. I (come) up to me and (ask) me whether(-cb) I (1) thave my hair cut without having to pay anything."  The net  Mr Jones was the manager of a small circus. If you (ever=jenal in a circus, you'll certainly know what a tightrope walker is a person who wal a tightrope stretched(=gespannt) high above the floor. But one day the tightrope walker that circus (find) himself without a tightrope walker.  A few days later, a young aan with long hair (come) Mr Jones was the menager of (for Gyurse, I (walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The youn with the long hair enswered, "Of cyurse, I (walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The youn with the long hair enswered, "Of cyurse, I (walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The youn with the long hair enswered, "Of cyurse, I (even, have) a partner, but sinc (cie) I (do) it alone.  Mr Jones orderyid his worker to put up a net under the rope. The young in (cie) I (do) it alone.  Mr Jones orderyid his worker to put up a net under the rope. The young in (cie) I (not be) able to have young a my the put leave) the British (ebotchaft) in the Gmaguan capital when |            |
|--|------------|
| (sit) down together and (wait) till the betrey (finish). Then the young man told the barber to shave him and to command the start. "Shave me first," he said, "and then I (go) down road and have a glass of wine while you (cut) the boy's haif." "All right, but I (not be) long," the barber warned him.  B The young man (go) out and the barber (begin) to cut the boy's hair. As(-wie) he (sit) down and (wait the end of half an hour, the young man (not come) back and the boy then along time. Where can he be?" - "I can't guess," answered the small boy. "And the come is a such a long time. Where can he be?" - "I can't guess," answered the small boy. "And the have my hair cut without having to pay anything."  The net  Mr Jones was the manager of a small circus. If you (ever-jemsl in a circus, you'll certainly know what a tightrope (-Seil) walker is: a person who walk a tightrope stretched(gaspannt) high above the floor. But one day the tightrope walker.  A few days later, a young aan with long hair (come) with heart of the was young as with long hair (come) walker. (you, ever, welk) on a tightrope walker. I (just hear) that you want one." Mr Jones was very happy and said, "Yes, I do want one. (You, ever, welk) on a tightrope in your life?" The youn with the long hair answered, "Of gourse, I (do) it alone.  Mr Jones was very plassed and asked. (you, ever, de claims) App to the tightrope and (even, have) a partner, but since (claims) App to the tightrope and (post) in walker in (not wear) a ne heir (fall) in my ayes and I (soe) a prisoner in Omagus for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (post) that guerrillas (not wear) a heir (fall) in the Grapher of the kidnapper's (come) with him. When the police (even, have) a partner, but since (legin) to the Grapher's (fall) in my syes and I (soe) a prisoner in Omagus for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (soe) that guerrillas (completely, disappear-verschwinden). Not the kidnapper's (charry of with him. When the police (even, howe) a partner, but since (legin) the country (charry  | andsome    |
| (sit) down together and (west) till the barber (shave him and to te smell boy's hair. "Shave me first," he said, "and then I (go) down road and have a glass of wine while you (cut) the boy's hair."  "All right, but I (not be) long," the barber warned him.  10 The young man (go) out and the barber.  (begin) to cut the boy's hair. As(=wie) he (say), he soon (finish) and then the boy (still wait).  (C The barber said to the boy, "I wonder why your dasdy (still wait).  (C The barber said to the boy, "I wonder why your dasdy (not come) back and the boy (not be) my daddy. I (never see) him befor my life. I (not be) my daddy. I (never see) him befor my life. I (not be) my daddy. I (never see) him befor an interest this marring when he (come) up to me and (ask) me whether(=ob) I (late) (come) up to me and (ask) me whether(=ob) I (late) (ever=jemal in a circus, you'll certainly know what a tighttope (seil) walker is: a person who wal a tighttope stretched(-gespannt) high above the floor. But one day the tighttope walker (fall) and (hurt) himself. Mr Jones and (fall) and (say), "I'm a tighttope walker.  A few days later, a young asm with long heir (come) with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (week) on a tightrope in your life?" The young with heart of the you want one. "Mr Jones was very happy and said, "ves, I do want one. (you, ever, welk) on a tightrope in your life?" The young with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (wenk) on a tightrope in your life?" The young in the young and the proper of this worker to put up a net under the rope. The young a (climb) Ap to the tightrope and (be) a prisoner in Omagua for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omagua for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (but up a net under the rope. The young in (fall) in my eyes and I (be) a prisoner in Omagua for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omagua for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omagua for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (be) are soon I (be) a prisoner in Omagua | теу        |
| small boy's hair. "Shave me first," he said, "and then I   | 7          |
| small buy's hair. "Shave me first," he said, "and then I (cut) the hoy's hair."  "All right, but I (not be) long," the barber warned him.  "B The young man (go) out and the barber (hegin) to cut the boy's hair. As(=wie) he (sit) down and (asay), he according to the end of half an hour, the young man (not come) back and the boy (stil wait).  C The barber said to the boy, "I wonder why your daddy such a long time. Where can he be?" "I can't guess," answered the small boy. "And the hair can he be?" "I can't guess," answered the small boy. "And the hair can he be?" "I can't guess," answered the small boy. "And the hair can he be?" "I can't guess," answered the small boy. "And the hair cut without having to pay anything."  The net  Mr Jones was the manager of a small circus. If yov (ever=jemal in a circus, you'll certainly know what a tightrope(-Sail) walker is: a person who wal a tightrope stretched(-gespannt) high above the floor. But one day the tightrope walker that circus (fall) and (hurt) himself. Mr Jones and (say), "I'm a tightrope walker.  A few days later, a young aan with long hair (come)  Mr Jones and (say), "I'm a tightrope walker. I (you, ever, welk) on a tightrope in your life?" The your with the long heir answered, "Of goirse, I (even, have) a partner, but sinc (fall) himself worker to put up a net under the rope. The young in (climb) Ap to the tightrope and (begin) to walk in the first of the some years ago I (die) I (not wear) a net heir (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to  A newspaper report  The British diplomet Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (completely, disappear-verschwinden). Not he with the Omaguen capital when three men (push) him into and (drive) off with him. When the police (completely, disappear-verschwinden). Not he kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (the ciandeutig) news about him since that day, a complete the government -Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill two weeks. There ( | out the    |
| road and have a glass of wine while you  | the .      |
| "All right, but I  |            |
| (begin) to cut the boy's hair. As(=wie) he (say), ha soon (finish) and then the boy (sit) down and (wait the end of half an hour, the young man (not come) back and the boy (sit) down and (not come) back and the boy (sit) wait).  C The barber said to the boy, "I wander why your daddy such a long time. Where can he be?" -"I can't guess," answered the small boy. "And the (not be) my daddy. I (never see) him befor my life. I (play) in the street this merning when he (come) up to me and (ask) me whether(=ob) I (1 to have my hair cut without having to pay anything."  The net  Mr Jones was the manager of a small circus. If yov (ever=jemal in a circus, you'll certainly know what a tightrope(=Seil) walker is: a person who wal a tightrope stretched(=gespannt) high above the floor. But one day the tightrope walker that circus (find) himself without a tightrope walker.  A few days later, a young wan with long hair (come)  Mr Jones and (say), "I'm a tightrope walker. I (come)  Mr Jones and (say), "I'm a tightrope walker. I (walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The youn with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The youn with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The youn it. Mr Jones was very pleased and asked, "(come) and (begin) to walker to put up a net under the rope. The young mater is the proper of the tightrope and (begin) to walker the put up a net under the rope. The young mater is the proper of the proper of the proper of the proper of the tightrope and (begin) to walker the put up a net under the rope. The young mater is the proper of the prop |            |
| (begin) to cut the boy's hair. As(-wie) he (sit) down and (wait the end of half an hour, the young man (not come) back and the boy (still wait).  C The barber said to the boy, "I wonder why your daddy such a long time. Where can he be?" -"I cen't guess," answered the small boy. "And the (not be) my daddy. I (never see) him beform my life. I (any) in the street this morning when he (come) up to me and (ask) me whether(-ob) I (1 to have my hair cut without having to pay snything.  The net  Mr Jones was the manager of a small circus. If yov (ever=jemal in a circus, you'll certainly know what a tightrope(-5eil) walker is: a person who wal a tightrope stretched(-gespannt) high above the floor. But one day the tightrope walker that circus (find) himself without a tightrope walker.  A few days later, a young man with long hair (come)  Mr Jones and (say), "I'm a tightrope walker. I (just hear) that you want one." Mr Jopes was very happy and said, "Yes, I do want one." (you, ever, welk) on a tightrope in your life?" The open with the long hair enswered, "Of gourse, I (even, have) a partner, but since (climb) App to the tightrope and (even, have) a partner, but since (climb) App to the tightrope and (begin) to wal it. Mr Jones was very pleased and asked, "(you, ever, declaver things without a net?" "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net heir (fall) in my eyes and I (push) him into (Botschaft) in the Omaguen capital when three men (push) him into (Botschaft) in the Omaguen capital when three men (push) him into and (drive) off with him. When the police (ask) and the kidnappers (hear) any definite(-eindeutig) news about him since that day, a clever things without a net?" (be) some hopeful signs letely(-in latzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government (-Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill the war between the guerrillas and the government (-Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill the war between the guerrillas and the government (-Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill the war between the guerrillas and the government (-Regieru |            |
| (finish) and then the boy (sit) down and (wait the end of half an hour, the young man (not come) back and the boy (still wait).  C The barber said to the boy, "I wonder why your dasdy such a long time. Where can he be?" - "I can't guess," answered the small boy. "And the (not be) my daddy. I (never see) him beformy life. I (play) in the street this morning when he (come) up to me and (ask) me whether(sob) I (1 to have my hair cut without having to pay anything."  The net  Mr Jones was the manager of a small circus. If yov (ever=jemal in a circus, you'll certainly know what a tightrope(=Seil) walker is: a person who wal a tightrope stretched(=gespant) high above the floor. But one day the tightrope walke that circus (fall) and (hurt) himself. Mr Jones and (fand) himself without a tightrope walker.  A few days later, a young aan with long heir (come)  Mr Jones and (say), "I'm a tightrope walker. I (just hear) that you want one." Mr Jopes was very happy and said, "Yes, I do want one." (you, ever, walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The youn with the long heir answered, "Of çourse, I (walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The youn (die) I (do) it alone.  Mr Jones was very plesfed and esked, (even, have) a pertner, but since (climb) dop to the tightrope and (begin) to wal it. Mr Jones was very plesfed and esked, (you, ever, do clever things without a nét?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a ne heir (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to  A newspaper report  The British diplomét Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Nr Stapleton (completely, disappear-verschwinden), Mr ones t peop:s (hear) any definite(=sindeutig) news about him since that day, since the kidnappers (hear) any definite(=sindeutig) news about him since that day, since the war between the guerrillas and the government(-Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill two weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(-in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government (-Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill the war between the guerril |            |
| the end of half an hour, the young man (not come) back and the boy (still wait).  C The barber said to the boy, "I wonder why your dasdy such a long time, where can he be?" - "I can't guess," answered the small boy. "And the (not be) my daddy. I (never see) him beformy life. I (play) in the street this morning when he (come) up to me and (ask) me whether(~ob) I (1 to have my hair cut without having to pay anything."  The net  Mr Jones was the manager of a small circus. If yow (ever=jemal in a circus, you'll certainly know what a tightrupe(=Seil) walker is: a person who wal a tightrope stretched(=gepannt) high above the floor. But one day the tightrope walke thet circus (fall) and (hurt) himself. Mr Jones (fall) and (hurt) himself. Mr Jones and (fall) and (say), "I'm a tightrope walker. I (just hear) that you want one." Mr Joges was very happy and said, "Yes, I do want one. (you, ever, walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The young with the long hair answered, "Of cpurse, I (walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The young with the long hair answered, "Of cpurse, I (walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The young (climb) Ap to the tightrope and (begin) to wal it. Mr Jones was very pleaged and asked, " (you, ever, declever things without a nét?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net hair (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to  A newspaper report  The British diplomat Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (completely, disappesr-verschwinden). Mr Jones was definite(=sindeutig) news about him since that day, and (drive) off with him. When the police (carry (e-durchrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letxter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government(=Regierung) may end soon, Guerrilla the war between the guerrillas and the government inisters. We can only hope the such that the policy of some hopeful signs lately(=in letxter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government inisters. We can only hope the                          |            |
| (still wait).  C The barber said to the boy, "I wonder why your daddy such a long time. Where can he be?" - "I can't guess," answered the small boy. "And the come be?" - "I can't guess," answered the small boy. "And the come; of the still boy. "And the still boy. "I can't guess," answered the small boy. "And the come; of the still boy. "I can't guess," answered the small boy. "And the still boy. "I can't guess," answered the small boy. "And the still boy. "I can't guess," answered the small boy. "I can't guess, but he still boy. "I may still | ,          |
| Such a long time. Where can he be?" -"I can't guess," answered the small boy. "And the (not be) my daddy. I (never see) him beformy life. I (play) in the streat this marning when he (come) up to me and (ask) me whether(=ob) I (lath have my hair cut without having to pay anything."  The net  Mr Jones was the manager of a small circus. If yov (ever=jemal in a circus, you'll certainly know what a tightrope(=Sei) walker is: a person who wal a tightrope stretched(=gespant) high above the floor. But one day the tightrope walke that circus (fall) and (hurt) himself. Mr Jones (fall) and (hurt) himself. Mr Jones and (fall) himself without a tightrope walker. I (come)  Mr Jones and (say), "I'm a tightrope walker. I (you, ever, welk) on a tightrope in your life?" The youn with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The youn with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (even, have) a partner, but since (climb) Ap to the tightrope and (begin) to walk it. Mr Jones was very pleased and asked, (you, ever, do clever things without a net?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net hair (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to  A newspaper report  The British diplomét Brian Stapleton (just leave) the British (eBotschaft) in the Omaguan capital when three men (push) him int and (drive) off with him. When the police (carry, dear) and definite(=sindeutig) news about him since that day, as most peop:s (believe) that guerrillas (carry, dear) most peop:s (believe) that guerrillas (carry, dear) may definite(=sindeutig) news about him since that day, as most peop:s (believe) that guerrillas (carry, dear) may descend may the government (=Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill tow weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government ministers. We can only hope than the war between the guerrillas and the government ministers. We can only hope than the police of the carry of |            |
| such a long time. Where can he be?" - "I can't guess," answered the small boy. "And the (not be) my daddy. I   | (take)     |
| (not be) my daddy. I (never see) him beformy life. I (play) in the street this marning when he (come) up to me and (ask) me whether(=ob) I (1 to have my hair cut without having to pay anything."  The net  Mr Jones was the manager of a small circus. If yov (ever=jemal in a circus, you'll certainly know what a tightrope(=Seil) walker is: a person who wal a tightrope stretched(=gespannt) high above the floor. But one day the tightrope walke that circus (find) himself without a tightrope walker. A few days later, a young man with long hair (come)  Mr Jones and (say), "I'm a tightrope walker. I (come)  Mr Jones and (say), "I'm a tightrope walker. I (walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The youn with the long hair answered, "Of cpurse, I (walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The youn with the long hair answered, "Of cpurse, I (even, have) a partner, but since (die) I (do) it alone.  Mr Jones orderød his worker to put up a net under the rope. The young man (climb) Aup to the tightrope and (begin) to wall it. Mr Jones was very pleaged and asked, "(you, ever, de clever things without a net?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net heir (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to  A newspaper report  The British diplomate Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (just leave) the British (-Botschaft) in the Omaguen capital when three men (push) him ind and (drive) off with him. When the police (a)  (hear) any definite(-aindeutig) news about him since that day, as (carry) (be) in the country two weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(-in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government(-Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope thas   |            |
| (come) up to me and  |            |
| (come) up to me and (ask) me whether(=ob) I (1 to have my hair cut without having to pay anything."  The net  Mr Jones was the manager of a small circus. If yov (ever=jemal in a circus, you'll certainly know what a tightrope(=Seil) walker is: a person who wal a tightrope stretched(=gespannt) high above the floor. But one day the tightrope walke that circus (fall) and (hurt) himself. Mr Jones (find) himself without a tightrope walker.  A few days later, a young man with long hair (come)  Mr Jones and (say), "I'm a tightrope walker. I (you, ever, walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The your with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The your with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (even, have) a pertner, but since (die) I (do) it alone.  Mr Jones orderød his worker to put up a net under the rope. The young make the following without a net?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to A newspaper report  The British diplomét Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (be) in the country in the kidnappers (carry) of with him. When the police (arry) (hear) any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, a most peop:e (believe) that guerrillas (carry) may end soon. Guerrill two weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Xellow) the ware between the guerrillas and the government ministers. We can only hope tha  | 10 111     |
| The net  Mr Jones was the menager of a small circus. If yov  | like)      |
| The net  Mr Jones was the manager of a small circus. If yov (ever=jemal in a circus, you'll certainly know what a tightrope(=Seil) walker is: a person who wal a tightrope stretched(=gespannt) high above the floor. But one day the tightrope walker that circus (fall) and (hurt) himself. Mr Jone (find) himself without a tightrope walker.  A few days later, a young man with long hair (come)  Mr Jones and (say), "I'm a tightrope walker. I (just hear) that you want one." Mr Jofes was very happy and said, "Yes, I do want one. (you, ever, walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The young with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (even, have) a partner, but since (die) I (do) it alone.  Mr Jones ordered his worker to put up a net under the rope. The young man (climb) Ap to the tightrope and (begin) to wall it. Mr Jones was very pleased and asked, " (you, ever, do clever things without a net?" "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net hair (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to  A newspaper report  The British diplomat Brian Stapleton (just leave) the British (=Botschaft) in the Omeguan capital when three men (push) him into (drive) off with him. When the police (and the kidnappers (hear) any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, and (completely, disappear=verschwinden). No (hear) any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, and (durchrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) some hopeful signs letely(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government "Engierung) may end soon. Guerrill (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope tha  | LING       |
| Mr Jones was the manager of a small circus. If yoy (ever=jemal in a circus, you'll certainly know what a tightpope(=Seil) walker is: a person who wal a tightrope stretched(=gespannt) high above the floor. But one day the tightrope walket that circus (fall) and (hurt) himself. Mr Jone (find) himself without a tightrope walker.  A few days later, a young man with long hair (come) Mr Jones and (say), "I'm a tightrope walker. I (you, ever, walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The your with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The your with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (walk) on a tightrope now it ife?" The young mall my life. Some years ago I (even, have) a partner, but since (die) I (do) it alone.  Mr Jones ordered his worker to put up a net under the rope. The young mall my life. Some years ago I (you, ever, do clever things without a net?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net hair (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to A newspaper report  The British diplomat Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (just leave) the British (-Botschaft) in the Omaguan capital when three men (push) him into and (drive) off with him. When the police (and the kidnappers (carry) (hear) any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, as most people (be) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that the war between the guerrillas and the government = Regierung   may end soon. Guerrill (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that   |            |
| in a circus, you'll certainly know what a tightrupe(=Seil) walker is: a person who wal a tightrope stretched(=gespannt) high above the floor. But one day the tightrope walker that circus(fall) and(hurt) himself. Mr Jone(find) himself without a tightrope walker.  A few days later, a young man with long hair(come)  Mr Jones and(say), "I'm a tightrope walker. I(just hear) that you want one." Mr Jones was very happy and said, "Yes, I do want one  |            |
| in a circus, you'll certainly know what a tightrupe(=Seil) walker is: a person who wal a tightrope stretched(=gespannt) high above the floor. But one day the tightrope walker that circus(fall) and(hurt) himself. Mr Jone(find) himself without a tightrope walker.  A few days later, a young man with long hair(come)  Mr Jones and(say), "I'm a tightrope walker. I(just hear) that you want one." Mr Jones was very happy and said, "Yes, I do want one  | ls,be)     |
| a tightrope stretched(=gespannt) high above the floor. But one day the tightrope walker that circus  |            |
| (find) himself without a tightrope walker.  A few days later, a young man with long hair (come)  Mr Jones and (say), "I'm a tightrope walker. I (just hear) that you want one." Mr Joges was very happy and said, "Yes, I do want one.  (you, ever, walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The youn with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The youn with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (even, have) a partner, but since (die) I (do) it alone.  Mr Jones orderød his worker to put up a net under the rope. The young me (climb) Ap to the tightrope and (begin) to wal it. Mr Jones was very pleased and asked, " (you, ever, do clever things without a nét?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a new heir (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to A newspaper report  The British diplomét Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (just leave) the British (=Botschaft) in the Omaguen capital when three men (push) him into and (drive) off with him. When the police (au the kidnapper's (completely, disappear=verschwinden). No (completely, disappear=verschwinden). No (hear) any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, a most peop'e (believe) that guerrillas (carry (=durckrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) in the country the weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government ministers. We can only hope thas  |            |
| A few days later, a young man with long hair (come)  Mr Jones and (say), "I'm a tightrope walker. I  (just hear) that you want one." Mr Jopkes was very happy and said, "Yes, I do want one.  (you, ever, walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The youn with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (walk) on a tightrope in all my life. Some years ago I (even, have) a partner, but since (die) I (do) it alone.  Mr Jones orderød his worker to put up a net under the rope. The young man (climb) Ap to the tightrope and (begin) to walk it. Mr Jones was very pleaød and asked, "(you, ever, do clever things without a net?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omagus for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (just leave) the British (eBotschaft) in the Omaguan capital when three men (push) him intended (drive) off with him. When the police (and the kidnapper's (completely, disappear=verschwinden). No (hear) any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, and (edurchrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government (=Regierung) may end soon. Guerrilla (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that  |            |
| A few days later, a young man with long hair (come)  Mr Jones and (say), "I'm a tightrope walker. I  (just hear) that you want one." Mr Jopes was very happy and said, "Yes, I do want one.  (you, ever, walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The young with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The young all my life. Some years ago I (even, have) a partner, but since (die) I (do) it alone.  Mr Jones ordered his worker to put up a net under the rope. The young me (climb) Ap to the tightrope and (begin) to wal it. Mr Jones was very pleased and asked, "(you, ever, do clever things without a net?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net in the long without a net?" - "No, sir, if I (not be) able to A newspaper report  The British diplomat Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (just leave) the British (=Botschaft) in the Omaguan capital when three men (push) him into and (drive) off with him. When the police (authority) the kidnappers (believe) that guerrillas (carry (edurchrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) in the country to weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately (=in latzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government (=Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that  |            |
| (just hear) that you want one." Mr Jopes was very happy and said, "Yes, I do want one."  (you, ever, walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The your with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (walk) on a tightrope in all my life. Some years ago I (even, have) a partner, but since (die) I (do) it alone.  Mr Jones ordered his worker to put up a net under the rope. The young me (climb) Ap to the tightrope and (begin) to wal it. Mr Jones was very pleased and asked, "(you, ever, do clever things without a net?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net hair (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to A newspaper report  The British diplomet Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omagua for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (just leave) the British (=Botschaft) in the Omaguan capital when three men (push) him into and (drive) off with him. When the police (and the kidnapper's (completely, disappear=verschwinden). No (hear) any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, and most people (believe) that guerrillas (carry (edurcWrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government (=Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that  | ) to       |
| (just hear) that you want one." Mr Jopes was very happy and said, "Yes, I do want one.  (you, ever, walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The your with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (walk) on a tightrope in all my life. Some years ago I (even, have) a partner, but since (die) I (do) it alone.  Mr Jones ordered his worker to put up a net under the rope. The young me (climb) up to the tightrope and (begin) to wall it. Mr Jones was very pleased and asked, " (you, ever, do clever things without a net?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net hair (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to A newspaper report  The British diplomat Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omague for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (just leave) the British (=Botschaft) in the Omaguen capital when three men (push) him into and (drive) off with him. When the police (and the kidnappers (completely, disappear=verschwinden). No (hear) any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, at most peop:e (believe) that guerrillas (carry (edurchrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) in the country two weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government =Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that   |            |
| with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (walk) on a tightrope in your life?" The young all my life. Some years ago I (even, have) a partner, but since (die) I (do) it alone.  Mr Jones ordered his worker to put up a net under the rope. The young make the following of the tightrope and (begin) to wal it. Mr Jones was very pleased and asked, " (you, ever, do clever things without a net?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net hair (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to A newspaper report  The British diplomat Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omagus for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (just leave) the British (=Botschaft) in the Omaguan capital when three men (push) him into and (drive) off with him. When the police (and the kidnappers (completely, disappear=verschwinden). Note the kidnappers (believe) that guerrillas (carry (=durchrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) in the country two weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government ministers. We can only hope that   | . But      |
| with the long hair answered, "Of course, I (walk) on a tightrope in all my life. Some years ago I (even, have) a partner, but since (die) I (do) it alone.  Mr Jones ordered his worker to put up a net under the rope. The young me (climb) Ap to the tightrope and (begin) to wal it. Mr Jones was very pleased and asked, " (you, ever, do clever things without a net?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net heir (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to A newspaper report  The British diplomat Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Dmagua for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (just leave) the British (=Botschaft) in the Omaguan capital when three men (push) him into and (drive) off with him. When the police (and the kidnappers (completely, disappear=verschwinden). No (hear) any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, at (edurchrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) in the country two weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government ministers. We can only hope that  | ng man     |
| all my life. Some years ago I (even, have) a partner, but since (die) I (do) it alone.  Mr Jones ordered his worker to put up a net under the rope. The young me (climb) up to the tightrope and (begin) to wal it. Mr Jones was very pleased and asked, " (you, ever, do clever things without a net?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net hair (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to  A newspaper report  The British diplomat Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omagua for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (just leave) the British (=Botschaft) in the Omaguan capital when three men (push) him into and (drive) off with him. When the police (and the kidnappers (completely, disappear=verschwinden). No (hear) any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, and most people (believe) that guerrillas (carry (edurchrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) in the country two weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government (=Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that  | nearly     |
| Mr Jones ordered his worker to put up a net under the rope. The young me (climb) Ap to the tightrope and (begin) to wal it. Mr Jones was very pleased and asked, " (you, ever, do clever things without a net?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net hair (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to A newspaper report  The British diplomate Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omagua for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (just leave) the British (=Botschaft) in the Omaguan capital when three men (push) him into and (drive) off with him. When the police (and the kidnappers (completely, disappear=verschwinden). No (hear) any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, and most people (believe) that guerrillas (carry) (edurchrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) in the country two weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government ministers. We can only hope that  | ce she     |
| Mr Jones ordered his worker to put up a net under the rope. The young me (climb) up to the tightrope and (begin) to wal it. Mr Jones was very pleased and asked, " (you, ever, do clever things without a net?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net hair (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to A newspaper report  The British diplomat Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omagua for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (just leave) the British (=Botschaft) in the Omaguan capital when three men (push) him integrated and (drive) off with him. When the police (and the kidnapper's (completely, disappear=verschwinden). No (hear) any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, and most peop:e (believe) that guerrillas (carry (=durchrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) in the country two weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government (=Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that  |            |
| it. Mr Jones was very pleased and asked, " (you, ever, do clever things without a n/et?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net hair (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to  A newspaper report  The British diplomat Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omagua for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (just leave) the British (=Botschaft) in the Omaguan capital when three men (push) him integrated and (drive) off with him. When the police (and the kidnappers (completely, disappear=verschwinden). Note that any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, and most peop!e (believe) that guerrillas (carry (=durchrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) in the country two weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government (=Regierung) may end soon. Guerrilla (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that  | man        |
| it. Mr Jones was very pleased and asked, " (you, ever, do clever things without a n/et?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net hair (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to  A newspaper report  The British diplomat Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omagua for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (just leave) the British (=Botschaft) in the Omaguan capital when three men (push) him integrated and (drive) off with him. When the police (and the kidnappers (completely, disappear=verschwinden). Note that any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, and most peop!e (believe) that guerrillas (carry (=durchrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) in the country two weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government (=Regierung) may end soon. Guerrilla (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that  | lk along   |
| Clever things without a net?" - "No, sir, if I (not wear) a net heir (fall) in my eyes and I (not be) able to A newspaper report  The British diplomet Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omagua for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (just leave) the British (=Botschaft) in the Omaguan capital when three men (push) him integrated and (drive) off with him. When the police (and the kidnapper's (completely, disappear=verschwinden). Not (hear) any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, as most peop:e (believe) that guerrillas (carry (=durcWrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) in the country two weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government (=Regierung) may end soon. Guerrilla (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that   | o) these   |
| A newspaper report  The British diplomat Brian Stapleton   | et, my     |
| A newspaper report  The British diplomet Brian Stapleton   | see."      |
| The British diplomat Brian Stapleton (be) a prisoner in Omagua for months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton (just leave) the British (=Botschaft) in the Omaguan capital when three men (push) him into and (drive) off with him. When the police (and the kidnappers (completely, disappear=verschwinden). Note that any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, and most peop!e (believe) that guerrillas (carry (=durckrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) in the country two weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government(=Regierung) may end soon. Guerrilla (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that   |            |
| months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton  (=Botschaft) in the Omaguan capital when three men  (drive) off with him. When the police  (completely, disappear=verschwinden). Note that day, as most peopse  (believe) that guerrillas  (carry two weeks. There  (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government(=Regierung) may end soon. Guerrilla (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that   |            |
| months now. A year ago Mr Stapleton  (=Botschaft) in the Omaguan capital when three men  (drive) off with him. When the police  (completely, disappear=verschwinden). Note that day, as most peopse  (believe) that guerrillas  (carry two weeks. There  (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government(=Regierung) may end soon. Guerrilla (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that   | or twelve  |
| (=Botschaft) in the Omaguan capital when three men (push) him integrated and (drive) off with him. When the police (are the kidnappers (completely, disappear=verschwinden). Note that any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, are most peop:e (believe) that guerrillas (carry (=durchrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) in the country two weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government(=Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that  | embassy    |
| the kidnappers   | nto a car  |
| the kidnappers   | rrive),    |
| (hear) any definite(=eindeutig) news about him since that day, as most people (believe) that guerrillas (carry (=durcWrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) in the country two weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government(=Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that   | lobody     |
| (carry (edurchrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton (be) in the country two weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately (ein letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government (eRegierung) may end soon. Guerrill (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that   | ilthough   |
| (=durcWrühren) the kidnapping. Mr Stapleton(be) in the country two weeks. There(be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government(=Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that  | /) out     |
| two weeks. There (be) some hopeful signs lately(=in letzter Zeit the war between the guerrillas and the government(=Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that  | for only   |
| the war between the guerrillas and the government(=Regierung) may end soon. Guerrill(have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that  | t) that    |
| (have) a meeting with government ministers. We can only hope that  | la leaders |
| (lead) to freedom for Brian Stapl  | at these   |
| moune(-Schrifte) towards neace (1500) to 1166000 101   | leton soon |