"WOLLEN" in English

ACHTUNG: „Wollen" ist, anders als im Deutschen, im Englischen kein Modalverb, d.h. es bildet alle Zeiten wie jedes andere regelmäßige Verb!

1. etwas wollen

to want something

z.B.: She wants a new English book.

Verneinung: present simple: do/does not want s.th.

past simple: did not want s.th.

2. etwas tun wollen

to want to do something z.B.: They want to do their home-exercises regularly this year.

Verneinung: present simple: do/does not want to do …

past simple: did not want to do …

3. wollen, dass jemand etwas tut

to want someone to do something z.B.: The teacher wants us to be in the classroom on time.

Verneinung: do/does/did not want s.o. to do s.th.

oder: to want s.o. not to do s.th.

4. wollen, dass etwas getan wird

to want something to be done

z.B.: The headmaster wants the classroom to be tidied up after the last lesson.

Verneinung: do/does/did not want s.th. to be done

oder: to want s.th. not to be done
